The Aeolian Islands: Lipari and Vulcano

Following a convenient transfer, you will cross the Strait of Messina and, upon arrival in Milazzo, embark on a comfortable motorboat that will coast along the beautiful Mamertino Promontory, offering a sea view of the Aragonese Castle, continuing to the port of Lipari. Here, you will have the opportunity to visit the archaeological wonders of the island, the Museum, the Monastery, or the Cathedral of San Bartolomeo. The next destination will be the island of Vulcano, where you can admire the fascinating mythological area, with a captivating view of the Faraglioni and the Grotta degli Angeli. Upon arrival in Vulcano, if you wish, you can stop in the Thermal area of the Sulfur Mud or at the renowned Black Sand Beaches.
